Yes. If you wish, you may make a report to the Hotline anonymously. The Hotline assigns a tracking number to every caller so that those who do not wish to give their names can still check back to receive a response or provide additional information. Of course, providing your name often will assist in the investigation of the matter you are reporting. As explained below, Campbell prohibits retaliation against anyone who raises a concern in good faith.

Can I Make a Report Anonymously?

We will treat your report confidentially to the extent possible, consistent with legal obligations and the best interests of all concerned.

Every effort will be made to respond quickly to your report. We will investigate the issues and, if appropriate, take corrective action.

Any employee who seeks advice, raises a concern, or reports a possible violation in good faith is following Campbell's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. Campbell strictly prohibits and will not tolerate retaliation of any kind against anyone who reports a concern in good faith or who helps to investigate or resolve it. Anyone engaging in retaliatory conduct will be subject to disciplinary action, which may include termination of employment. If you think that you or someone you know has been retaliated against for raising a compliance or integrity issue, immediately contact any member of the Legal Department or Campbell's Integrity Hotline.
